Seen & Heard Around Murray

Is nothing sacred any more? Is everything going to be changed, merely for the sake of change?

Now we don't mind women's fashions changing every year with the hemline going from here to yonder. We can stand women's shoes changing from the sharp pointed toe to the square toe.

We never complain too much about the ladies changing their hair-styles in such a manner that you can never recognize them one day to the next.

We don't really care if men's clothing undergoes some changes, such as changing the wide pants leg to the narrow, or the ties from the narrow to the broad.

Automobile makers may up-sweep the back of their cars one year, then down sweep it the next.

Shirt collars can get long or they can get short.

Hat brims can change from broad to narrow.

But when it comes to changing our underwear, this is too

Two Injured In Accident This Morning

George Randolph Dodd and Marie F. Branco were injured in a two car accident this morning at 7:15 on South 16th Street, according to the report filed by the investigating officers of the Murray Police Department.

Both were treated at the emergency room of the Murray-Calloway County Hospital and released. Dodd had a fracture of the nasal bone and contusion to the right forearm and cervical spine while Miss Branco had a contusion of the chin and right knee, according to hospital officials.

Cars involved were a 1969 Jeep two door owned by C. D. Whitlock and driven by George Randolph Dodd of Box 484, Murray, age 18, and a 1968 Plymouth two door hardtop driven by Marie F. Branco of Zimmerman Apartments, Murray, age 20.

Police said Dodd was going south on South 16th Street and made a left hand turn in front of the Branco car going north on South 16th. The cars collided at the front ends, according to the police report.

Damage to both cars was on the front end. Monday night at 7:15 a one car accident occurred on East Chestnut Street and was investigated by the Murray Police Department.

John Steven Todd, Route Two Covey Drive, Murray, driving a 1962 Chevrolet two door sedan, was going west on Chestnut Street and ran off the road on the north side tearing up a bridge, according to the police report.

Todd, age 20, was reported to have received a bruised lip. His car was damaged on the right front and right side.

Nature's Palette Club To Meet

The Nature's Palette Garden Club will have its Christmas potluck luncheon at the Community Center on Friday, December 5, at nine a.m.

Mrs. D. Douglas and Mrs. R. Q. Knight will be the hostesses. Mrs. S. L. Horn will furnish the rolls and each member is to bring a covered dish. "Decoupage" will be the subject of the lesson to be given by Mrs. L. E. Fisk. All members are urged to attend.

Speech Therapist Is Employed, Calloway County School System

William B. Miller, Superintendent of Calloway County Schools, announces that the Board of Education voted last night to employ a Speech Therapist for the children of the Calloway County School System.

This program will be a follow-up to a screening of the children that was made by the Speech and Hearing Department of Murray State University in cooperation with the principals, teachers and Mrs. Lucille Ross, Title I School Nurse of the County Schools.

The number of those needing therapy far exceeded the expectations of those making the test.

Mrs. Dixie Hopkins was elected to fill this position of Speech Therapist. She will assume her duties January 30, 1970 after completion of a B.S. degree at Murray State University. Mrs. Hopkins, the former Dixie Green of Marshall County, is the wife of Dr. Thomas Hopkins and they have four children. The family attends the First Christian Church in Murray. Mrs. Hopkins is active in the District Dental Auxiliary and the Murray Woman's Club.

"We are fortunate in procuring state funds for this program and we welcome Mrs. Hopkins to our staff," Mr. Miller stated. The Board also voted last night to make application for a Drivers Education Unit at the Calloway County High School. "Drivers Education is a badly needed course offering at our High School and with the Federal Government paying one half of the total cost of the program this makes it appeal to us (with our limited budget) even more," Supt. Miller stated.

In other action last night, the Board voted to "Declare Intent" to purchase twelve new school buses to be added to its fleet for the 1970-71 school year. Seven sixty passenger buses will be purchased and five sixty-six passenger buses will also be bought. Each of the six elementary schools will receive two new buses. Mr. Miller noted that the Board was able to purchase these new buses due to the Legislature making possible the enactment of the Utility Tax.

"Our Board is anxious to explore all avenues whereby a better school program can be offered to our students in Calloway County. I personally feel that the Board's action of last evening, in making possible these programs, is indicative of the interest of each Board member and the personal desire that each one has in offering better educational opportunities for the youth of our schools," Supt. Miller concluded.

Mrs. Singleton's Funeral Wednesday

Funeral services for Mrs. Olie M. Singleton will be held Wednesday at ten a.m. at the chapel of the J. H. Churchill Funeral Home with Henry Harris and Dennis Rogers officiating.

Pallbearers will be Carvis Sanders, Hugh Arnett, Leslie Douglas, Fred Douglas, Douglas Jones, and Glen Sims.

Interment will be in the Antioch Cemetery with the arrangements by the J. H. Churchill Funeral Home where friends may call.

Mrs. Singleton, age 86, died Monday at the Murray-Calloway County Hospital. Her husband, John R. Singleton, died October 22, 1965.

Survivors are one daughter, Mrs. L. A. (Mary) Rowland, one son, Robert E. Singleton, one sister, Mrs. Ruby Arnett, two grandchildren, David Singleton and Mrs. Vickie Nance, and several nieces and nephews, all of Calloway County.

Vernon Shown

Shown Assumes Presidency, District Education Assoc.

Vernon Shown, since 1963 director of the Murray State University School, Monday assumed the presidency of the 2,100-member First District Educational Association.

He succeeds Harper Stackhouse, a guidance counselor in the Paducah city schools, at the head of the 13-county educational organization.

Other new officers whose year-long terms also start today are:

Chester Anderson, LaCenter, who is the president-elect. Anderson is a teacher at Ballard County Memorial High School.

Mrs. Edna Quarles, acting superintendent of McCracken County schools, Paducah, is the new vice-president.

The 13 counties represented among the FDEA membership are: Calloway, Graves, McCracken, Fulton, Hickman, Carlisle, Ballard, Lyon, Trigg, Caldwell, Crittenden, Livingston and Marshall.

Shown, who was named president-elect of the organization at the 1968 delegate assembly, has been with the University since 1956, serving for seven years as director of school services before being named director of the University School in 1963.

A 1950 graduate of the University with a degree in mathematics and physics, he also received a master's degree at Murray State in 1964 in school administration. Currently, he is working on the specialist in ed-

Mrs. Wear Is Now At Home After Wreck

Mrs. Georgia B. Wear of Murray was injured in a two car accident Sunday about four p.m. at South 9th and West Water Streets, Mayfield.

She was treated at the Community Hospital, Mayfield, and then admitted to the Murray-Calloway County Hospital with a slight concussion and bruises. She was released from the hospital on Sunday night and is now recuperating at her home.

Four persons in the other car were injured. They were Evelyn Teresa Mills, age 25, Mayfield Route Two, bruises and sprains; Paula Mills, age three, minor cuts and bruises; Tanya Mills, age six, broken collar bone and possible internal injuries. They were taken to the Community Hospital.

The Mayfield City police said that the Mills car was driving west on Water Street and Mrs. Wear was driving north on South 9th Street when the collision occurred.

A highway marker, a Curlee Clothing Company sign, and several shrubs were also damaged in the accident, the police report said. Mayfield firemen were called to the scene to flush away spilled gasoline, the firemen reported.

Futures Of Young Men Are Decided By Lottery Monday

What The Lottery Means To Youths

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Here is a rule-of-thumb guide for draft-age youths to determine what the birthday lottery drawing meant to them:

You are involved if your birthday falls between Jan. 1, 1944, and Dec. 31, 1950. If your birthday was drawn in the first 122 numbers and you are not deferred for something such as college, it is almost certain you will be called for induction in 1970.

If your birthday was drawn between No. 123 through 244: The outlook is touch and go that you'll receive your draft board notice. There are varying factors such as the quotas assigned to your local Selective Service Board, deferments, whether your birthday comes high or low on this middle grouping.

If your birthday was drawn in the bottom third from numbers 245 through 366: There is small likelihood you will be summoned in the draft and you can probably plan your life and career in the knowledge you will have no military service requirement barring national emergencies.

If you are temporarily deferred because of college or jobs: Your exempt status continues but the priority level in which your birthday falls in the drawing will be effective for the year your exemption expires. Thus if you should graduate or drop out of college in 1973, if your birthday was the 15th number drawn in the Monday lottery, you would be placed in the 15th level of call-ups in 1974 even though a different birthday was drawn 15th for that year.

Boy Scout Troop 77 Has Camp Out And Hike In LBL

Boy Scout Troop 77 made a two day camp out at LBL this past weekend. On a crisp cool Saturday the troop hiked the seventeen mile Land-Between-the-Lakes trail which extends from a point 1 1/2 miles north of US 68 to the center furnace ruins near the TVA museum. The route of the trail follows old wagon roads, old pioneer trails and deer paths through the woodlands.

The troop bivouacked in the Colson Hollow area and in this place completed two conservation projects. The scouts placed bird feeders of their own design about the hillside and cleared a wooded area to protect a white pine grove from broad leaf encroachment.

Scouts who enjoyed the campout were: Ronnie Billington, Steve Porter, Tony Cain, Craig Thweatt, Anthony Fike, Junior Eldridge, Mark Thurman, Bobby Knight, Rawley Fair, Allen Lemons, Jeff Oakley, Robert Underwood, Mark Buckingham, Mike Alexander, and Joe Thweatt.

Troop 77 meets every Monday night at 6:30 p.m. in the basement of the First Christian Church. All boys interested in scouting are invited to attend.

Burley Sales Swing Upward On Monday

by United Press International
Burley sales in Kentucky took a swing upward for the first time this season Monday when 27 of the states' 30 markets reported an average of $70.97 per hundred pounds.

The average amounted to an increase of 17 cents per hundred pounds over the $70.80 average posted at the end of sales Friday.

The Federal - State Market News Service reported that prices were steady to slightly lower Monday for the eight-state Burley Belt, with nearly half the grade averages $1 to $2 per hundred pounds below last Friday's levies.

Government loan receipts in the belt totaled 32 million pounds or 22.2 percent of the first week's gross sales. Deliveries on opening week last year amounted to 4.7 per cent.

A total of 25,064,822 pounds of burley was sold at Kentucky markets Monday for a total sale of $17,802,943.46.

No sales were reported at Russellville, Mayfield or Henderson.

The state's high average Monday was at Cynthiana where 725,296 pounds sold for $527.958.30 for an average of $72.79 per hundredweight.

The low average was recorded at Hopkinsville, where 432,240 pounds sold for $295.184.22 for an average of $68.29.

The heaviest amount of trade was reported by Lexington markets where 3,647,956 pounds were sold for $2,633,079.16 or an average of $72.18.

The smallest amount of trade Monday was at Franklin where only 327,894 pounds were sold for $244,598.90 for an average of $68.50.

September 14 Birth Date At Top Of List

By ARNOLD B. SAWISLAK
WASHINGTON (UPI) — An uncounted number of young American men who by chance share a common birth date — Sept. 14 — today were at the top of the list for the 1970 draft.

They shared their bad luck with thousands and thousands more — particularly those 18 to 25-year-olds born April 24, Dec. 30, Feb. 14, Oct. 18, Sept. 6, Oct. 26, Sept. 7, Nov. 22 and Dec. 6.

Those were the birthdates drawn as numbers 1 through 10 Monday night in the first Selective Service lottery in nearly three decades. In fact, the chances are fairly high draft age men without deferments whose birth dates were in the first 122 blue capsules drawn from the big glass cylinder will be called up next year.

First To Be Summoned
Thus those born on the first dates pulled out of the jar will be the first to be summoned as draftees. Conversely, those born on the last dates would be the last to be called and probably be completely exempt from the draft.

Those who are currently exempt from immediate call-up, such as college students, would retain their deferred status until it expires. Then their number allotted them in the Monday drawing would again be their number for induction.

The lottery procedure was one of the administration's key legislative proposals this year, and its enactment last month was one of President Nixon's biggest triumphs. It came with congressional promise for consideration of a full-blown overhaul of the draft next year — perhaps including abolishment of all deferments so that rich and poor, smart and average youngsters alike would face the same chance of military service.

Takes 90 Minutes

The drawing took 90 minutes, interrupted only by some relatively polite dissent and replies from the youngsters chosen to do the job. The 366 dates Feb. 29, Leap Year day, was No. 285, and the 26 scrambled letters of the alphabet will be used to determine the order of induction for some 850,000 draft eligible men next year.

Because only 251,000 draftees will be needed, and even accounting for an expected 290,000 enlistments from the pool, the chances of induction are slim for youths whose birth dates came up with numbers from 245 to 366. The 15th group was 123 to 244 — having only middling luck in the draw, they will need good fortunes of war to avoid call-up.

The drawing was held in a conference room about 30 by 30 feet on the ground floor of the national draft headquarters. Except for the 17 to 26 year-old members of the Selective Service Youth Advisory Board who were ushered in from an anteroom to select numbers in groups of eight, the audience was mostly well beyond draft age.

UCLA Picked First, UK Third In UPI Preseason

By STEVE SMILANICH
UPI Sports Writer

NEW YORK (UPI)—South Carolina is drawing strong support in its bid to dethrone UCLA as the king of major college basketball but don't expect the Uclans to abdicate without a fight.

In fact, members of the United Press International Coaches Rating Board think so much of UCLA's chances of repeating as champion that they tabbed Coach John Wooden's Bruins the No. 1 team in the 1969-70 preseason ratings.

The Bruins, beginning the campaign without superstar Lew Alcindor, the giant who guided them to 88 victories in 90 games and an unprecedented three straight national championships, received 14 first-place votes and a total of 259 points in the balloting in which 30 coaches participated.

The coaches rating board gave South Carolina nine first place votes and 231 points. Points are awarded on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis.

Kentucky, whose title hopes suffered a setback when Mike Casey was injured in an automobile accident in August, was picked as the No. 3 team in the preseason ratings. The Wildcats tallied three first-place votes and 201 points.

Defending Big Ten Conference champion Purdue, led by high-scoring Rick Mount, got two first place votes and was fourth in the balloting with 163 points. The Boilermakers were followed by New Mexico State with 125 points, Colorado with 72, North Carolina with two first-place votes and 63 points, Davidson with 53, Southern California with 51 and Duquesne with 43.

Here by sections are the coaches who comprise the 1969-70 board:

East: Lou Carnesecca, St. John's (N.Y.); Bob Harrison Harvard; Harry Litwak, Temple; John Manning, Duquesne; Larry

NOBIS OUT

ATLANTA (UPI)—The pro football season has ended prematurely for linebacker Tommy Nobis of the Atlanta Falcons.

Nobis, who returned to action last Sunday after being sidelined for seven weeks with a knee injury, re-injured the knee in the game against Baltimore and was placed on the injured reserve list for the remainder of the season.

NEW TRANSMISSIONS

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (UPI)—Andy Granatelli, one of auto racing's most active innovators, says two of the STP racing team's entries in the Rex Mays 300-mile race at Riverside Dec. 7 will have automatic transmissions.

George Folmer of Arcadia, Calif., and Sam Posey, Sharon, Conn., will handle the Granatelli automatics.

Texas, Penn State And Arkansas Will Battle For Crown

NEW YORK (UPI)—Texas, Penn State and Arkansas have set the stage for "Operation National Champion."

All three teams scored impressive victories this past week to set up a dramatic three-way dogfight for the national title. Texas, the nation's No. 1 team, will play Arkansas, the No. 3 club while Penn State, ranked second, waits for either to falter. The UPI national championship will be decided next Tuesday.

Ratings are based on regular season performances and do not include post-season play. Texas retained its No. 1 ranking, achieved last week when Ohio State, the season-long leader was upset, in convincing fashion. The Longhorns, 9-0, received 29 first Weise, St. Bonaventure.

Midlands: Hank Iba, Oklahoma State; Maury John, Drake; Abe Lemons, Oklahoma City U.; Ted Owens, Kansas; Norm Stewart, Missouri.

Midwest: John Dee, Notre Dame; Ray Meyer, De Paul; Harry Schmidt, Illinois; James Snyder, Ohio University; Fred Taylor, Ohio State.

Pacific Coast: Steve Belko, Oregon; Bob Boyd, Southern California; Howard Dallmar, Stanford; Marv Harshman, Washington State; John Wooden, UCLA.

Rockies: Jack Gardner, Utah; Phil Johnson, Weber State; Bill Strannigan, Wyoming; Russell Walseth, Colorado; Stan Watts, Brigham Young.

South: Frank McGuire, South Carolina; John Oldham, Western Kentucky; Adolph Rupp, Kentucky; Roy Skinner, Vanderbilt; Dean Smith, North Carolina.

Sports Parade

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (UPI)—Ted Williams trades the same way he hits.

Loose. He's so loose, he's beautiful, and all the other major league moguls and managers ought to take lessons from him on how to go about swapping ball players, because he's already an expert even though these are the very first baseball meetings he has ever attended.

One thing about Ted Williams, the trader, he doesn't monkey around. "He's unbelievable," says one American League exec about Washington's celebrated, high-strung vice president-manager. "All the other baseball people you talk with go through the standard preliminaries and gradually get around to whom they want, but Williams is altogether different. He'll walk right up to you and without so much as a how-do-you-do he'll come up with, 'Say, I'll trade you this guy for that one.'"

Haven't Made Deal

The Senators haven't made a deal here yet but it isn't Ted Williams' fault.

A newsman asked him a direct question: Would he trade Mike Epstein to the Yankees for Joe Pepitone and Al Downing?

"Yes, I would," Williams answered. "Personally, I can't go into the season with the same personnel. I gotta have something new to work with. My guys did a helluva job for me last season but I can't do it with the same guys all over again. I gotta have something different."

Those who don't know Williams might find that hard to understand. Those who do find it easy.

Ted Williams loves to teach, and what more is there to teach the same fellow after you've taught him all you can?

Williams is enjoying the sessions here because they're something new. He has never really hob-nobbed with owners, general managers and managers before.

Does he like the executive branch of his job?

"Well, I'm happy to be back in the mix of the whole thing," he says. "There's a lotta things off the field I like, a lot I don't. Your time is never your own. The press takes up a lot of time, and I'm not saying I can't get along with the press, but there are so many things to do and you never have enough time to do 'em. You know that safari I went on? I feel like I cheated the Senators, being away a month."

No Close Calls

Any close calls on the safari? "No," he laughed. "No close calls. The closest was when I saw a snake. I just see one and I get jumpy."

Williams suddenly caught sight of Ralph Houk, the Yankee manager, late Monday afternoon and got him into a corner where they talked. Epstein, Pepitone, Downing and a few others.

Williams and Houk talked for nearly 20 minutes, and later were joined by Lee MacPhail, the Yankee general manager, but no agreement was reached.

When he finally got up to leave, Williams noticed a newsman who regularly covers the Yankees.

"We'll take Murcer for Epstein," he told him. Williams meant Bobby Murcer.

The Yanks aren't that loose.

NEW MANAGER

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (UPI)—Earl Torgeson, a former major league first baseman, will manage the Clinton, Iowa, Pilots of the Class A Midwest League during the 1970 season.

The Clinton team is a farm club of the Seattle Pilots. Torgeson, appointed to the managership Friday, played in the major leagues with the Braves, Phillies, Tigers, White Sox and Yankees.

NEW CONTRACT

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (UPI)—Vanderbilt University, expressing confidence with the job done by head football coach Bill Pace, gave the coach a new contract extending the pact through the 1976 season.

Pace, head coach of the Commodores the past three years, developed a team which scored 242 points this season, most for any Vanderbilt time since 1950.

The first opening of land for white people in Oklahoma was April 22, 1889.

Major League Trades Hit Logjam Today

By JOHN G. GRIFFIN
UPI Sports Editor

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (UPI)—A logjam in player trading developed at the winter baseball meetings today as club officials anxious to make swaps suddenly showed a streak of caution.

"We've got a lot of time yet," said the general manager of one major league club, "we're not going to make a deal just for the sake of showing the fans some new faces. Several deals are going to be made this week, but probably not until we shift the Miami Beach Thursday for the major league meetings."

The current minor league phase of the winter conclave is scheduled to wind up here on Wednesday, then move into a three-day major league session at which relations with the Players Association and plans for revamping the governing structure of the majors will vie with trades for headlines.

Groundwork Being Laid

The groundwork for several swaps is being laid here, however, and among the most promising were these:

... A three-way swap involving the Atlanta Braves, Oakland A's, and San Diego Padres. The Braves would send outfielder Felipe Alou to the Padres for Joe Mauer, and then the Padres would deal Alou to the A's for Ted Kubiak.

... A deal that would send slugger Mike Epstein of the Washington Senators to the New York Yankees for a package including pitching. The Senators have balked at the Yankees' proposal of Joe Pepitone for Epstein and in turn, the Yankees have nixed giving promising center fielder Bobby Murcer for Epstein. But the Yankees continue to hanker for the Bronx-born belter and are believed trying to put together a "package" that will land him.

... The world champion New York Mets' quest for a third baseman, dangling pitching as the bait.

Waiting For Okay

The Braves-A's-Padres triangle appeared to be waiting only an okay from A's owner Charlie Finley on the second part—the Alou-for-Kubiak deal.

Monday's annual player draft produced no surprises and offered little hope of substantial improvement to any team.

Nineteen players were selected by 15 teams at $25,000 each, a total of $475,000.

No, 1 choice, by the Cleveland Indians, was lefthanded pitcher Larry Staab, who had a 13-11 record for Spokane of the Pacific Coast League.

In other business today, the minor league officials will consider proposed amendments to the constitution of their association and continue meetings of the various leagues.

RACERS ROLL OVER TENNESSEE WESLEYAN IN SEASON OPENER

Second Half Surge Leads MSU Past Bulldogs 83-51

Claude Vidren (38) leaped high over Kelly Aldridge (25) of Tennessee Wesleyan to make this jump shot in last night's basketball opener for the Racers. Murray State won the game 83-51.

The Murray State Racers basketball team, coached by Cal Luther, used a second half outburst of scoring to romp over the Bulldogs from Tennessee Wesleyan 83-51 in the first encounter between the two schools at the MSU fieldhouse here last night.

Hector Blondett and Claude Vidren led the Racers attack with 21 and 19 points respectively and Jimmy Young pumped in 17 for the Thoroughbreds. Ron Johnson was big man on the boards for the Racers with 16 rebounds and 10 points.

Murray State scored first on a free throw by Johnson only 50 seconds into the game and the Racers held their lead for the rest of the night.

The biggest advantage for the Racers in the first half was 13 points which they held at two different times, 27-14 with 5:50 to go in the half and 29-16 with 4:38 remaining.

Coach Dwain Farmer's Bulldogs narrowed the gap in the closing minutes of the half and the Racers' lead was cut to 7 points, 31-24, at halftime.

Jimmy Young hit 4 field goals in the first five minutes of the second half along with one basket by Don Funneman to put Murray in front by 15, 41-26, and the Racers were home free from there on in.

The largest lead of the night for the Racers was 33 points, 83-51, with 20 seconds left to play in the game.

Every man on the Murray squad that dressed out for the game saw action and the Racers showed some very good depth on the bench.

Murray State hit 26 of 42 field goal attempts in the second half for an average of 61.9 per cent for the half and an overall average of 52.8 per cent on 38 baskets out of 72 attempts. Wesleyan hit only 19 field goals on 54 attempts for a 35.2 per cent average.

MSU hit 7 of 12 from the free throw line for 58.3 per cent compared with Wesleyan's 13 of 23 for 56.5 per cent.

The Racers controlled the backboards with 49 rebounds to 33 for the Bulldogs and Murray had 19 fouls charged against them while Wesleyan collected 10 persons.

The Racers next game will be with the University of California, Riverside, on Thursday night, December 4, at Murray State.

Freshmen Win

The Murray State freshmen team beat Lambuth College of Jackson, Tennessee, 87-54 in the preliminary game last night. Les

The Murray Branch of American Association University Women presents a magazine and book cart to the Murray-Calloway County Hospital. Mrs. Inez Claxton, president, and Mrs. Judith Beam, committee chairman, are making the presentation to Mr. J. Field Montgomery, Hospital Administrator.

Murray AAUW Gives Cart To Murray Hospital

The American Association of University Women was founded in 1882 to open the doors of education to women and to unite the alumnae of different institutions for "practical education work."

Today there are more than 170,000 members, organized in 1650 branches in the fifty states, District of Columbia and Guam. AAUW lists over 1140 colleges and universities whose women graduates are eligible for membership. Kentucky has twenty-one listed, Murray State University being one of them. There are sixteen branches in the state.

Four areas of interest encompass the Association's program and define AAUW traditional commitments. They are Higher Education, Community Problems, World Problems and Cultural Interests.

Purchasing the magazine cart for the Murray-Calloway County Hospital is the current community project. Each member is also contributing magazines and books. Reading material for all ages as well as picture books for children can be used in the hospital.

College graduates interested in AAUW membership may contact Mrs. Judith Beam, membership chairman 436-2356 after 4:00 p.m., or Mrs. Inez Claxton, president, 762-6283.

Mrs. Emma Knight Program Leader At Women's Meeting

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Good Shepherd United Methodist Church met Tuesday, November 18, at two o'clock in the afternoon.

Mrs. Emma Knight was leader for the program on the subject, "Where the Need Is — That Is Where We Go." The purposes of the program were to highlight the far flung places in the world where the Women's Division is participating in missions through the Methodist Church and to point out the need for Methodist women to pledge their support to help wherever needed, the leader said.

Participating on the program with Mrs. Knight were Mrs. Ruth Wilson, Mrs. Libby Mahan, Mrs. Dorothy Dunn, Mrs. Gladys Dunn, and Mrs. Kathryn Wilson.

The next meeting will be the Christmas program in the home of Mrs. Libby Mahan on Tuesday, December 16, at one p.m.

Reader's question poses many others

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am very much in love with a man who is old enough to be my father. We want very much to get married, but my parents disapprove of him because of the difference in our ages. Abby, we have been in love for over a year now and if this isn't "love" I will be satisfied with whatever it is for the rest of my life.

We enjoy the same things, and have beautiful fun together. He is kind, loving, unselfish, and I KNOW we could be happy. So how important is age?

IN LOVE

DEAR IN LOVE: Age IS important, but it's not ALL important. You don't say how "young" you are—or how "old" he is. Neither do you give me a clue concerning how mature, experienced, independent, and self-sufficient you are. Have you dated many men? Have you ever been out in the business world? What's his track record? Past marriages? Children? Grandchildren, maybe? [Could you and WOULD you be willing to support him if you had to?] These are all very important factors. Clew me in, and I'll be able to give you an answer.

DEAR ABBY: I would like to comment on the woman who wanted to be breastfed her adopted child.

When I was a young girl I had a female Cocker Spaniel who was getting on in years. Then someone gave me a kitten which was two days old. I placed the kitten in the same box with the Cocker Spaniel and I thought it was "cute" the way the kitten kept trying to "nurse" on the Cocker Spaniel.

After three days, the milk came in! I could hardly believe it because that Cocker Spaniel had not had pups for a long time. Besides, I never knew a dog could nurse a cat!

Abby, that kitten was nursed by the dog until he was a full grown cat.

I witnessed this with my own eyes, but when I told my husband (who is a medical doctor of many years practice), he laughed at me.

After he read that item in your column pertaining to humans, he said in a much more humble tone, "If it could happen with humans, I suppose it could happen with animals." Thank you, Abby.

"VINDICATED" IN SANTA ANA

DEAR ABBY: It didn't surprise me to read in your column where a woman who had never borne a child was able to nurse an adopted baby. I once saw an old range mare who had been barren for years adopt an orphan colt and raise it on milk which seemed to have come in through a miracle.

DUDLEY, AN OLD COW POKE

DEAR ABBY: I belong to a car pool in which there is one woman who is giving us all fits. She will pick up the children at school and then proceed to do her marketing, pick up her dry cleaning, pay a few bills, and so on. Sometimes she doesn't bring the children back until dark. In the meantime, we mothers are half out of our minds for fear there's been an accident, so we are on the telephone calling each other and waiting.

Is there some nice way we can tell this thoughtless woman to do all her errands BEFORE she picks up the children at school?

SPOKESWOMAN

DEAR SPOKESWOMAN: Don't worry about trying to find a "nice" way to tell this woman that she is out of line. Just tell her that if she cannot manage to bring the children directly home from school in the future, she had better find other transportation for her child, because YOUR car pool is OUT.

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

For Abby's new booklet, "What Teen-Agers Want to Know," send $1 to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069.

Special Service Program Given At The WSCS Meet

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the First United Methodist Church met Tuesday evening at 7:30 for a special Thanksgiving Service. Mrs. William Britton, president, presided over a short business session.

The Hannah Circle presented the devotion with Mrs. Joe Keeslar opening the program with a prayer of Thanksgiving. "Five Grains of Corn", the subject of the inspiring devotion, was presented by Mrs. Lewis Beyers, Mrs. Fred Morton, Mrs. James Statler, Mrs. Nolan Harvey, and Mrs. Keeslar.

The theme of the program "Old Fashion Thanksgiving" was given by members of the Alice Waters Circle. This was carried out in decoration and dress of participants, Mrs. C. B. Ford, Mrs. A. C. La Follette, Mrs. Euva Alexander, Mrs. Don Robinson, Mrs. William E. Moffett. The history of Thanksgiving was given beginning with the Biblical times. Many of the ancient Thanksgiving customs were described and the foundation of our American Thanksgiving celebration was presented.

The altar was beautifully decorated with various harvest foods depicting the first Thanksgiving. The Ruth Wilson Circle and Brooks Cross Circle were in charge of altar decorations.

Following the program, dessert was served at individual tables centered with candles and greenery. The Mary Leona Frost, Mattie Belle Hayes, and Wesleyan Circles were in charge of serving.

Approximately fifty persons signed the register. Mrs. Justin W. Stuart, vice-president, directed the arrangements for the service.

Benton Girl Has Surgery; Kidneys And Spleen Removed

DENVER, Colo., Dec. 1—Karen Mathis, 17, a kidney disease victim of Benton, Ky., underwent surgery this morning at Colorado General Hospital here.

Miss Mathis had both kidneys and her spleen removed.

She was brought to the hospital here sometime Saturday from a Memphis hospital when Memphis physicians said her kidneys should be removed.

Miss Mathis condition was described as satisfactory late today.

Miss Mathis had been scheduled for transplant surgery on Dec. 5 but that surgery reportedly has been delayed until an infection found on the hospital floor where transplants are done is cleared up.

Persons of several states have followed Miss Mathis' case with interest.

A fund-raising campaign on behalf of the Benton High School junior was started several days ago. The effort was climaxed last Tuesday through a radio-thon. On Saturday, it was reported $20,000 had been reported in cash and pledges.

Miss Mathis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Mathis of E. 20th St. in Benton. Mrs. Mathis is to be the donor of a new kidney for her daughter.

Miss Mathis received artificial kidney machine treatments and other treatment in Memphis. Artificial kidney machines have been known to enable persons without kidneys to resume normal lives, particularly in patients who perform only light physical labor.

Because of her age and condition, it was decided that Miss Mathis would benefit from a kidney transplant. Her condition, however, worsened and then came a later decision to remove the kidneys and to perform the transplant at a later time.

The Denver hospital spokesman made no comment on the report about the infection that may have delayed transplant surgery for Miss Mathis.

DESERTERS TO DENMARK—Two U.S. deserters from units in West Germany, Spec. 4 Reginald R. Alderton, 22, St. Charles, Ill., and (right) Pvt. Tpd H. Price, 20, Chesterland, Ohio, sit in a car in Copenhagen, Denmark, as the Danish government ponders what to do. They arrived from Paris and it was decided to send Alderton back there to face a four-month narcotics sentence. Price gets temporary residence permit if France refuses him re-entry. (Cablephoto) much. The fashion setters have gone one step too far.

We go up to Ace's place and tell him what we want. You don't want that, he says, what you want is these boxer type shorts with elastic all the way around.

We say, uh uh, we don't want boxer type shorts with elastic all the way around, we want the ones with the snaps down the front.

Surely, you don't want the ones with the snaps down the front, he says, what you really want is the boxer type with elastic all the way around.

Uh uh, we uh uh, we want the ones with the snaps down the front, so he digs back in the archives until he finds them. No body wears these any more he says.

We do, we says.

We guess we are old fashioned or something. We don't particularly resist change, but every now and then something hits us wrong and we refuse to go along with this modern age.

After all, there's no need to change everything.

Early this morning two Doves, their grayness blending in with the dawn, stand there in the yard. They saw us through the window, but were not startled enough to move.

Two Blue Jays, a Cardinal and a Mocking Bird joined them with a female Cardinal, in muted tones, arriving later.

A Squirrel could be seen back in the woods with his tail flicking to beat sixty. He jumped to a tiny limb and he swayed toward the ground apparently enjoying the ride.

There's one dead tree, a small one, which rises from the ground at about a 45 degree angle. We have started to cut it down, but the Squirrels enjoy running up this tree and taking off to some distant branch. We just left it there.

A kindly country person who had just married a young couple had a parting word for the groom: "Son, God bless you. You're at the end of all your troubles." A year later, the groom returned to the scene of the crime and moaned, "What a year! I've gone through! And you're the man who told me I was at the end of my troubles." "So I did, son," smiled the person. "I just didn't tell you which end."

A father, his arms filled with groceries, got on a bus with his son, age 5. The son had the fare and dropped it in the box, then seemed to feel that he should explain. "I'm paying the money," he told the bus driver in a voice that carried clearly through the bus. "My father is loaded."

Rabbis lauded for work in Latin America

NEW YORK (UPI)—American-trained rabbis have sparked a religious revival in Jewish communities in Latin American countries, according to leaders of the Jewish Theological Seminary in America.

Rabbi Wolfe Kelman, executive vice president of the Rabbinical Assembly, the international association of Conservative rabbis, said "the quality of Jewish religious life in Latin America not only is markedly richer than it was 10 years ago, but in many cases superior to what may be found in the United States."

State highway patrolmen are currently coping with the abandoned car on a state or interstate highway by calling the nearest service station. A report is then sent to the state, the car's owner traced by license or motor serial number.

IF THE owner claims title, he is responsible for all charges. If not, the service station can apply for a mechanic's lien and assume ownership after 90 days. But he does all this for $10 or less—and he's protesting.

As one service station owner lamented: "Detroit sent 'em out, why don't the government make Detroit take 'em back?" Any way you look at the chunker problem, it isn't pleasant; piles of junked cars aren't conducive to a beautiful America.

Letter To Editor

Dear Mr. Williams:

With the present headlines concerning the fight against tuberculosis, this is the time of the year to remind the community that we do have people from Calloway County who are patients in the sanatorium in Madisonville being treated for this disease.

We also have some patients confined to their homes under treatment.

If anyone would like to contribute to their happiness during this Christmas season, any personal gift would be appreciated. Pajamas for both male or female, size medium robes, house slippers, warm socks, and toilet articles are extremely useful.

Persons may leave them at the Calloway County Health Department and I will deliver them on December 18th.

Thanking you in their behalf,

Laura V. Alexander, R.N.

Assemblies seminar

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (UPI)—The second annual seminar of Assemblies of God evangelists will meet at the denomination's headquarters here Dec. 18-20 to discuss their role in the church's 1970 program.

Next year will be the second of the Assemblies of God five-year Plan of Advance and its theme is "Impact 70-Go and Tell." During the year, individual acceptance of responsibility to share the Gospel of Christ will be stressed in every facet of church activity.

Wyoming has 3,000 campsites.

At Least 12 Families Remain In Between Lakes Park Area

GOLDEN POND, Ky., Dec. 1—Pending hardship extension requests by at least 12 families who live within the boundaries of the Land Between The Lakes National Park area have nullified the deadline today for evacuation of the project.

Residents of the sprawling recreation complex were ordered to be moved out of the project boundaries by today. The order was issued Aug. 28 in Federal District Court in Paducah by Judge Henry Brooks. However,

Today's Stock Market

NEW YORK (UPI) — Stocks opened lower today in moderately active trading on the New York Stock Exchange.

The "900 level" of the Dow Jones Industrial average could come in for another test today if the factors which have pushed stock prices down recently continue to weigh on the market. Tax selling, the outlook for corporate profits and concern over tight money have been widely regarded as the chief culprits in the market's recent decline.

Shortly after the opening the UPI indicator was off 0.57 with 318 shares crossing the tape. Declines outnumbered advances 142 to 77. The Dow Jones average of 30 blue chip industrials was off more than two points.

U.S. Steel fell 1/4 to 35. Bethlehem lost 1/4 to 27 1/2. Republic was unchanged at 35 1/2.

Standard Oil of New Jersey led the oils lower, giving up 1/4 to 60 1/2 on 7,800 shares. Gulf lost 1/4 to 29 1/2. Occidental 1/4 to 24 1/2. Mobil 1/4 to 46 1/2.

In the chemicals, Du Pont gave up 1/2 to 107 1/2 and Dow was off to 68 1/2. Allied Chemical eased 1/4 to 27 1/2. Union Carbide was steady at 38 1/2.

In the motors American Motors dipped 1/4 to 9 1/2. Ford and Chrysler were steady at 42 1/2 and 36, respectively.

Among the electronics, IBM lost 1 1/2 to 358 1/2 while University Computing was off 2 1/4 to 91 1/2. Texas Instruments fell 1 1/2 to 123 1/2. RCA was unchanged at 37 1/2.

Neil Simon's Broadway hit, "The Odd Couple," which later was turned into a movie, will become a weekly half-hour television series on ABC in the 1970-71 season. The leading roles will be played by Tony Randall and Jack Klugman.

the judge added the provision that hardship cases could be appealed to the court.

The order by Judge Brooks affected 33 former owners of property in the LBL area.

A spokesman for the Tennessee Valley Authority, which is developing the recreation complex and now holds title to all of the land in the project area, said his agency received "about 20" requests for hardship extensions from the people still living in the project zone.

He said all but one of the requests for time extensions were turned down "because the requests did not show sufficient cause to constitute a hardship under the guidelines set out in the court ruling." The one-time extension granted was given due to illness in the family, the spokesman added.

Following the rejection of the extension requests by TVA, he said, Granville Clark, attorney who represented the LBL property owners in the original court litigation, filed 12 petitions requesting hardship extensions with the Federal District Court office in Paducah.

The TVA spokesman said his agency Friday filed answers to three of the petitions, and had mailed out answers to the remaining nine petitions today.

He said the answers maintain the original TVA position that the requests do not show sufficient cause to be labeled a hardship case under the ruling by Judge Brooks.

Meanwhile, the Federal District Court office in Paducah was closed today, and the status of the petitions and answers could not be checked with federal authorities.

The TVA spokesman said the matter now would rest with Judge Brooks. If he finds for TVA again, it will be the responsibility of the court to see that the remaining former property owners still living in the project area are evicted.

Quotes From The News

By UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. — Manuel Wright, a senior and member of Students for a Democratic Society, at the University of New Mexico, reacting to his being chosen among the top 10 priority birth dates in the draft lottery.

"I want everyone to know how happy I am to win a national contest, but with a sense of humility and great mental anguish, I'm going to have to refuse the prize because there are more deserving men over 30 who want to fight communism and I think they should get the prize before I do."

EAST LANSING, Mich. — Fred Comstock, a sophomore at Michigan State University, commenting on being No. 29 in the Selective Service System's lottery dates:

"I'd rather have it the other way. I'm gone for now, I knew it, I'm going."

LOS ANGELES — Police Chief Edward Davis briefing reporters after three suspects were identified in the slaying of actress Sharon Tate and four others Aug. 9:

"It is anticipated that an additional four or five persons will be named in indictments which will be sought from the Los Angeles County Grand Jury."

NEW YORK — Pfc. John W. Lewis, 24, as petitioner in a federal suit requesting that the Army abolish or reform stockades: "Stockades should be abolished because they are incarceration camps for the military's political prisoners."

Our "Clunker" Headache— How Can We Dispose of Wornout Cars?

The "clunkers" clutter the landscape—be it city streets or back road farmyards.

By GROVER BRINKMAN

Central Press Association Correspondent

ST. LOUIS—Most American cities have a new headache looming on their residential streets—derelict cars—but no doubt St. Louis has a king-sized dose, due to recently-enacted state auto inspection laws that made it impossible for the "clunker" to stay on the highways.

An estimated 7,000 wornout cars now litter St. Louis' side streets. Another 20,000 cars are expected to be abandoned shortly by their owners, due to the new laws that require rigid inspection before the state releases license tags for the current year.

Many owners driving ancient hacks as transportation vehicles to and from work know they will not pass inspection, so they use them as long as possible, then merely leave them on the street.

Which brings up a question currently tagged with a big headache: what should a responsible owner do with his wornout car? Often it has no trade-in value, little or no junk value. Should he abandon it on the street, run it out to some isolated area, some land-fill dump? Leave it along a rural road, or in a farmer's pasture?

CITY-licensed towing companies in St. Louis will tow away any car, regardless of condition, for $12.50. But many owners of old cars feel the shoe is on the wrong foot. They feel they should receive some gratuity for the old car they are turning in—or at least get it towed to the cemetery for free.

If the car isn't too bad, possibly it has a few salvageable parts, a battery, radio, tires, etc. Under these conditions, a junkyard owner might accept it for free, or even pay a small sum for it. If it's a real clunker, but if it's a real clunker, or stripped of its saleable parts, no one is even mildly interested.

cite new steel making processes that use less and less of old metal. They feel, if anything, that the junk market will worsen. Other junk dealers protest the fact that they have so many cars on hand that space is at a premium. They can't accept any more.

KANSAS CITY, with 5,000 junkers cluttering streets, still is towing away cars free. But the waiting list is so long, owners might have to wait months.

If the junker has a battery, it might be worth a dollar to the yard man. A radiator, containing brass and copper, might bring two dollars; tires are a dime or a quarter, never much more.

State highway patrolmen are currently coping with the abandoned car on a state or interstate highway by calling the nearest service station. A report is then sent to the state, the car's owner traced by license or motor serial number.

Most cities don't have funds in current budgets covering this towing of abandoned cars. Most city dumping lots are overflowing, and even if the owner of a clunker makes arrangements with a city towing company, he might wait months before they pick up his car.

Junk dealers, deploring the low price per ton for scrap iron, are beginning to look for other ways to dispose of the clunkers. Some are beginning to look for other ways to dispose of the clunkers. Some are beginning to look for other ways to dispose of the clunkers.

Wayne's woes

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — John Wayne suffered a dislocated shoulder when his saddle cinch slipped during a shot of "The Undefeated," his second injury on the picture.

"I WASN'T scared. Not too much," 6-year-old Timothy Martin tells his mother, Mrs. Kathy Bryant, in Hart, Mich., after escaping death when hunters rescued him from his kidnaper who was attempting to drown him in Lake Michigan. The man who abducted Timothy while the youngster was playing with friends in a Chicago park escaped.

WIDESPREAD DAMAGE

KUALA LUMPUR (UPI) — Heavy rains hit Malaysia Sunday, causing widespread damage to three states. Authorities said two persons drowned and three others were missing as a result of the storm. Kelantan State in the northeast was said to be the worst hit.

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (UPI) — The population of Stockholm continues to decrease. From Nov. 1, 1968, to June 20, 1969, the decline was 7,700. The population of Stockholm proper now is 750,000.

CIVILIANS KILLED

TOKYO (UPI) — Hanoi Radio said Sunday South Vietnamese troops killed 336 civilians in a two-month campaign against the Viet Cong in the U Minh Jungle area southwest of Saigon.

A broadcast heard in Tokyo said the killings occurred over a two-month period ending Nov. 20.

The radio said 107 persons, mostly women and children, were killed in Kanh Lam village of Ca Mau Province and 229 others died in six other villages in the same district.

Glen Campbell's Advice: "You Gotta Speak Up!"

By ARMY ARCHERD
Central Press Association
Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD—Glen Campbell has an urge to communicate. That's the way America's most popular country-folk-singer looks at himself. And he's going about it in the right way. A star on TV, in the recording field, on the pop concert stage and now in movies, he apparently is finding little trouble getting the word through in all media.

Campbell currently is laboring in the film field, this time starring in "Norwood," his second movie for producer Hal Wallis. And he's teamed again with Kim Darby and to make the association more binding, it's another Charles Portis novel. Marguerite Roberts, who adapted Portis' "True Grit" for films, also wrote the script for "Norwood." Why fool around with success?

Campbell's urge—even drive, to communicate, has been with him since he was a mere lad in Delight, Arkansas.

"MY PAPPY once told me, 'If you don't know something—ask. If you want to say something, speak up.' I've been doing it ever since," Glen reveals. "The first thing I figured out was to be polite. You can say the same thing two different ways. One will get you a smash in the mouth."

"I try not to act like I'm something I'm not. It's no use trying to fool people unless you get to be a big expert at it."

"I'm going to be myself, not try to act, for at least two more pictures. I can see the difference already between my first movie, 'True Grit' and this one. I'm real relaxed now. I'll just go on like this until I'm absolutely comfortable."

"Then I'd like to try to play a real character. Maybe a heavy of something like that. I'd just like to try it once and if I couldn't do it, I'd get right back to being myself. It's the challenge."

WHILE Glen's "live and let live" attitude predominates, he insists that his own personal opinion regarding his public image be given due consideration. Hollywood is still gasping over Glen's defiance of everyone with regard to the use of certain four-letter words in his films. "Down in Arkansas where I come from," he explained, "we don't use language like that in front of our womenfolks." The words in the scripts were eventually changed.

Similarly, when Carol Lynley was to use some colorful language to him, he said, "We're going to have to do something about all your bad language. If any girl ever called me what they have you calling me in the script, I'd back-hand her one!" He suggested she mumble them.

Glen's final word on communications is a plea for young, upcoming singers to seek a live audience.

"TRY TO avoid singing into just microphones. Find an audience, even if you have to stand on street corners and sing. People were made to sing to. Find them and sing directly to all of them. The real kicks come from singing right to the people and hearing them clap like they enjoy it," Glen suggests.

And Campbell has the kicks to prove it!

Glen's advice goes farther: "If you've had one big hit tune and a million-seller record, forget it! Anyone can have one, or even two hits. It's the staying power that counts. True success means that you're welcome back with the audience for years and years."

Glen's own philosophy, if his bright star starts to fade, is typical of the man. "I'll just go back to guitar pickin' for some other singer. I made a good living for years pickin' and I can always do it again."

Anyone worried about his star fading—with a shining attitude like that?

RECKLESS DRIVERS RARELY CHANGE THEIR SPOTS

Reckless drivers — like leopards — rarely change their spots until it's too late.

Results of a three-day study of 14 drivers recently involved in fatal accidents reveals that nearly half were previously involved in accidents or had histories of prior arrests for serious traffic offenses.

The study — conducted by Kentucky's Traffic Safety Coordinating Committee — revealed the following:

One 31-year-old male driver killed in a single car accident while speeding had a record of one prior conviction each for reckless driving and driving while intoxicated.

It also showed that his privilege to drive had been suspended for an earlier offense.

One 25-year-old female passenger was killed instantly when the driver of the car in which she was riding fell asleep at the wheel. The driver — a 31-year-old man — had been involved in two prior accidents.

A 55-year-old male passenger was killed in a two-car accident when the car in which he was riding was struck and knocked into a ditch by a second car attempting to pass on a curve at a high rate of speed.

The driver of the passing vehicle — a 23-year-old man — had never been issued a driving permit and had been previously arrested for driving without any permit.

A 20-year-old male passenger was killed in a single car accident when the driver — a 22-year-old male — lost control of his car while speeding. His permit was expired and he had a record of one prior conviction each for reckless driving and speeding.

A 19-year-old male pedestrian died when struck by a speeding vehicle driven by a 27-year-old male whose driving privilege had been suspended following a prior accident.

An 18-year-old female passenger died in a single car accident when the driver — a 26-year-old male — ran off the road. Speeding and driving while intoxicated were listed as causes of the accident.

Twice suspended, his permit was under suspension at the time of the accident. He also had a record of three prior convictions for reckless driving and one for driving while under suspension.

Using official accident reports furnished by the Kentucky State Police and driver background data compiled by the Public Safety Department's driver licensing division, the traffic committee is planning regular releases to the public detailing their findings in weekend traffic deaths.

"We are particularly concerned," said the committee's executive director — Arthur (Buzz) Beard — "with what seems to be a high rate of accident involvement by drivers with sometimes extensive histories of traffic violations and the number of suspended or revoked drivers who continue to drive."

Through regular release of such information, Beard said, the committee hopes to generate public support for stricter enforcement of the law and the "point" system against drivers who are "chronic hazards" on the highway.

"We are also considering," he said, "the feasibility of asking for stiffer penalties, particularly for those drivers who continue to drive even though their privilege has been taken away from them."

Writer Has Troubles With Interviews

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI) — One of my big hang-ups as a journalist is that I can't bring myself to ask pretty young movie actresses how they feel about being filmed in the nude.

This defect has all but destroyed my effectiveness as an interviewer of pretty young movie actresses, a task I once performed with grace, dignity and élan.

There seems to be some sort of unwritten law that you can't interview a pretty young actress without asking how she feels about cinematic undress.

A few years ago, young actresses merely were asked if they would be willing to appear in skin flicks. But things have changed a lot since then.

Extraneous Question
Nowadays, asking a pretty young actress if she would be willing to be filmed in the nude is like asking Buster Keaton if he would be willing to get hit in the face with a custard pie.

So you ask them how they feel about it. Only I can't do it. Every time I start to ask a pretty young actress how she feels about being filmed in the nude, I freeze up.

Like the other evening I was given an opportunity to interview Margot Kidder, a pretty young actress who is appearing in "Gaily, Gaily," a new picture based on the early life of Ben Hecht.

"You are a splendid specimen of young womanhood," I told Miss Kidder, "and I would adore inquiring into your life and times, which must be intensely interesting. But it wouldn't work. I could never ask you how you feel about being filmed in the nude."

Miss Kidder was amazingly understanding for one so young, and promptly took me off the hook.

Can Manufacture Quote
If I wanted to, she said, I could pretend I had asked her that question and then I could manufacture a quote from her. She said she would leave her reply entirely to my discretion.

Her generosity gave me a strange sense of power. With carte blanche authority to put words in her mouth, I could have her say anything I wanted her to say.

At the same time, however, I felt a strong sense of responsibility.
